18 DEBT INSTRUMENTS

- 18.1 The board may authorise the company to issue secured or unsecured debt instruments, as set out in section 43(2) of the Companies Act, provided that the debt instruments may not grant special privileges as contemplated in section 43(3) of the Companies Act.

18.2 The foregoing provisions of this clause 18 shall not prevent the company from redeeming debt instruments held by a person simultaneously with the issue of shares or other securities to that person or its nominee.

18.3 The authority of the board to authorise the company to issue secured or unsecured debt instruments, as set out in section 43(2), is accordingly limited or restricted by this MOI.

19 BENEFICIAL INTERESTS

Securities issued by the company may be held by, and registered in the name of, 1 (one) person for the beneficial interest of another person, but no person other than the registered holder of a security shall be entitled to exercise any of the rights associated with that security (save to the extent that person is given the right to do so under the Companies Act) and the company shall not recognise any person other than the registered holder of a security as the holder of that security save to the extent it is required to so recognise any such person by the Companies Act.

20 JOINT HOLDERS OF SECURITIES

Where 2 (two) or more persons are registered as the holders of any security, they shall be deemed to hold that security jointly, and -

20.1 notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained anywhere else in this MOI, on the death, sequestration, liquidation or legal disability of any 1 (one) of those joint holders who is not represented by a legal representative as referred to in clause 21, the remaining joint holders may be recognised, at the discretion of the board, as the only persons having title to that security;

20.2 any 1 (one) of those joint holders may give effective receipts for any distributions or other payments or accruals payable to those joint holders;

20.3 only the joint holder whose name stands first in the securities register shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to that security, or to receive notices or payments from the company (and any notice or payment given to that joint holder shall be deemed to be notice or payment, as the case may be, to all of the joint holders);

20.4 any 1 (one) of the joint holders of any security conferring an entitlement to exercise voting rights on a resolution may vote either personally, by proxy or by authorised representative at any shareholders meeting in respect of that resolution as if it were solely entitled to exercise those voting rights, and, if more than 1 (one) of those joint holders is present at any shareholders meeting, either personally, by proxy, or by authorised representative and votes, the joint holder who tenders a vote (including an abstention) and whose name stands in the securities register before the other joint holders who are present, in person or by proxy or authorised representative, shall be deemed to be the only joint holder who is entitled to exercise voting rights in respect of that security.

21 LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES

21.1 A legal representative of the registered holder of any security issued by the company ("security holder") shall -

21.1.1 be the only person recognised by the company as having any rights in respect of or title to a security registered in the name of the security holder whom it represents, provided that if a security holder or its legal representative is a joint holder of that security, then this clause 21.1 shall not detract from clause 20 and this clause 21.1 shall be read together with clause 20;

21.1.2 be entitled to transfer registered ownership of any such securities to himself or to another person who is entitled to become the registered holder of that security; and

21.1.3 if so required by that legal representative or by the board, be entered into the securities register of the company nomine officio in the place and on behalf of that security holder, provided that -

- if the legal representative so entered into the securities register ceases to be the legal representative of that security holder, the board shall, pending transfer of that security to the security holder or another legal representative of that security holder or any other person who is entitled to become the registered holder of that security, be entitled to suspend the rights of the registered holder of that security to vote and shall be entitled to withhold (and retain until such transfer has occurred) all distributions payable to the registered holder of that security;
- the directors shall in any of such cases have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the security by the security holder in whose name it is registered;
- should any legal representative fail to elect either to be registered as a shareholder or to transfer any such security to himself or any other person who is entitled to become the registered holder of that security within 90 days after the directors have given it notice requiring it to do so, then the directors shall be entitled to withhold any distributions in respect of such security until compliance with the notice, provided that distributions in relation to securities registered in the name of a deceased or insolvent estate shall not be withheld in the event that the executor fails to register such securities in his own name or the name of the heir(s) or legatees within 90 (ninety) days after the directors have given it notice requiring it to do so.

- 21.2 Any security holder who is represented by a legal representative shall not be released from any obligation arising out of or in connection with the holding of that security.

PART D - SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS AND PROCEEDINGS

- 23.1 A shareholder may, at any time by written proxy appointment ("proxy instrument") which complies with this MOI and the Companies Act, appoint any individual, including an individual who is not a shareholder, as a proxy to -

23.1.1 participate in, and speak and vote at, a shareholders meeting on behalf of the shareholder; or

23.1.2 give or withhold written consent on behalf of the shareholder to a decision contemplated in clause 31, and any such proxy instrument (and any invitation by the company to appoint a proxy and any forms supplied by the company for use as a proxy instrument) shall be governed by section 58 of the Companies Act and this clause 23.

- 23.2 The board may determine a standard form of proxy instrument and make it available to shareholders on request.

- 23.3 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, a proxy -

- 23.3.1 need not, subject to clause 23.3.2, bear a handwritten signature of the shareholder appointing the proxy and may be an instrument created by electronic or other means, including, without limitation, electronic mail or facsimile;
- 23.3.2 shall be in such form as is approved or accepted by the directors and shall be accompanied by such documentary or other evidence as may be required by the directors in order to establish the validity and/or authenticity thereof, including the authority of the person appointing the proxy;
- 23.3.3 shall be received at the transfer office not less than 24 (twenty-four) hours before the time appointed for the holding of the shareholders meeting, or resumption of an adjourned shareholders meeting or re-commencement of a postponed shareholders meeting at which the person named therein proposes to vote; provided that a proxy may also be handed to the chairperson at the shareholders meeting before the person named therein exercises, at that meeting, the rights of the shareholder appointing the proxy;
- 23.3.4 shall not be valid after the expiry of 2 (two) months after the date when it was deposited at the transfer office unless it specifically provides otherwise;
- 23.3.5 shall in addition to the authority conferred by the Companies Act, except insofar as it provides otherwise, be deemed to confer the power generally to act at the shareholders meeting in question, subject to any specific direction contained in the proxy instrument as to the manner of voting or as to an abstention;

- 23.3.6 shall be valid at every resumption of an adjourned shareholders meeting, and at each re-commencement of a shareholders meeting that has been postponed, to which it relates, unless the contrary is stated thereon;
- 23.3.7 shall not be used at the resumption of an adjourned shareholders meeting or at the re-commencement of a postponed shareholders meeting if it could not have been used at the shareholders meeting that was adjourned or at the shareholders meeting that was postponed for any reason other than that it was not lodged timeously for the shareholders meeting from which the adjournment or postponement took place.
- 23.4 A shareholder may not appoint more than 1 (one) person concurrently as proxies, and may not appoint more than 1 (one) proxy to exercise voting rights attached to different securities held by the shareholder.
- 23.5 A proxy may not delegate the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the shareholder to another person, unless the right to delegate is specifically contained in the proxy instrument and the delegation occurs by way of a further proxy instrument which itself complies with the requirements of the Companies Act and this MOI for a proxy instrument.
- 23.6 A proxy shall not be entitled to exercise any rights of the shareholder who appointed that proxy –
- 23.6.1 until the commencement of the 24 (twenty-four) hour period referred to in clause 23.3.3; or
- 23.6.2 after midnight on the day on which the instrument revoking the appointment of that proxy was delivered to the transfer office;

provided that the board, or the chairperson of any shareholders meeting at which the proxy wishes to exercise any rights of the shareholder, may agree to allow any such proxy instrument or revocation to be effective at a different time to that when, or over an extended period to that in which, it would otherwise have been effective in terms of this clause 23.6.

23.7 A proxy shall, as contemplated in section 58(7) of the Companies Act and clause 23.3.5, be entitled, in the proxy's own discretion, to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of the shareholder; provided that if the instrument appointing the proxy specifically provides otherwise then the specific provisions of the proxy instrument shall prevail.

24 RECORD DATES

The board may, in accordance with section 59 of the Companies Act and the regulations to the Companies Act determine and publish a record date for the purposes of determining which shareholders are entitled to -

24.1 receive a notice of a shareholders meeting;

24.3 decide any matter by written consent or by electronic communication;

24.4 receive a distribution; or

25.2 The company shall hold a shareholders meeting in the circumstances contemplated in section 61(2) of the Companies Act and/or the circumstances contemplated in the JSE listings requirements.

25.4 The board shall determine the location for any shareholders meeting of the company and the company may hold any such meeting in the Republic or any foreign country and, accordingly, the authority of the board, as contemplated in section 61(9) of the Companies Act, is not limited or restricted by this MOI.

26 NOTICE OF SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

26.1 Not less than 15 (fifteen) business days' notice (as required in terms of the Companies Act) of each shareholders meeting shall be provided to the shareholders who are entitled to vote at such meeting and who have elected to receive notice, irrespective of whether ordinary resolutions or special resolutions or both are being proposed at that meeting; provided that the 15 (fifteen) business day notice period is not applicable where the company adheres to section 62(2A).

26.2 The notice of a shareholders meeting shall be announced through SENS in accordance with the JSE listings requirements.

- 26.3 The notice of a shareholders meeting shall be in writing and shall include the items set out in section 62(3) of the Companies Act.
- 26.4 The notice of a shareholders meeting must be delivered in accordance with the provisions of clause 46.
- 26.5 The notice of a shareholders meeting shall be delivered to the JSE at the same time it is sent to shareholders.

27 SHAREHOLDER MEETING QUORUM AND ADJOURNMENT

- 27.1 The quorum requirements for shareholders meetings (including resumptions of adjourned meeting and re-commencements of postponed meetings) shall, subject to clause 27.5, be that –
- 27.1.1 such a shareholders meeting shall not begin, and a matter to be considered at such a shareholders meeting may not begin to be debated, unless at least 3 (three) shareholders entitled to attend and exercise voting rights, present in person or by proxy or represented by an authorised representative, are present at such shareholders meeting;
- 27.1.2 such a shareholders meeting shall not begin until sufficient persons are present at such shareholders meeting (in person or by proxy or represented by an authorised representative) to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all voting rights that are entitled to be exercised in respect of at least 1 (one) matter to be decided at the shareholders meeting; and
- 27.1.3 the consideration of a matter to be decided at the shareholders meeting shall not begin unless sufficient persons are present at such shareholders meeting at the time when that matter is called for consideration to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all voting rights that are entitled to be exercised on that matter.

- 27.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 64(4) of the Companies Act and clause 27.1, if, within thirty minutes after the appointed time for a shareholders meeting or thirty minutes after the time when a matter is called for consideration, -
- 27.2.1 the quorum requirements for a shareholders meeting to begin have not been satisfied, the shareholders meeting shall automatically be postponed without motion or vote to the same day in the next week (or if that day is not a business day, the next business day after that day);
- 27.2.2 the quorum requirements for consideration of that particular matter to begin have not been satisfied, then, -
- 27.2.2.1 if there is other business on the agenda of the shareholders meeting, consideration of that matter may be postponed to a later time in the shareholders meeting without motion or vote; or
- 27.2.2.2 if there is no other business on the agenda of the shareholders meeting, the shareholders meeting shall be adjourned, without motion or vote, to the same day in the next week (or if that day is not a business day, the next business day after that day).
- 27.3 The resumed or re-commenced shareholders meeting may only deal with the matters that were on the agenda of the shareholders meeting that was adjourned or postponed.
- 27.4 The chairperson of the shareholders meeting shall be entitled to extend the thirty minute limit referred to in clause 27.2 in the circumstances contemplated in section 64(5) of the Companies Act.
- 27.5 If, within thirty minutes after the appointed time for the resumption of an adjourned meeting or the re-commencements of a postponed meeting or thirty minutes after the time when a matter is called for consideration at such resumed or recommenced meeting, the quorum requirements in clause 27.1 have not been satisfied, the shareholders present in person or by proxy or authorised representative will be deemed to constitute a quorum.

27.6 After a quorum has been established for a shareholders meeting, or for a matter to be considered at a shareholders meeting, including a resumed meeting and re-commencements of a postponed meeting, the shareholders meeting may continue, or the matter may be considered, so long as at least 1 (one) shareholder entitled to exercise voting rights at the shareholders meeting, or on that matter, is present at such shareholders meeting.

27.7 A shareholders meeting, or the consideration of any matter being debated at a shareholders meeting, including a resumed meeting and re-commencement of a postponed meeting, may be adjourned as contemplated in sections 64(10), 64(11) and 64(12) of the Companies Act, it being recorded that the periods of adjournment set out in section 64(12) shall apply without variation.

27.8 The board may, at any time after notice of a shareholders meeting (including a resumed meeting and recommencement of a postponed meeting) (other than a shareholders meeting required to be held in terms of clause 25.2) has been given but prior to the commencement of that meeting, postpone that meeting to such later date as may be determined by the board at the time of determining to postpone the meeting, or postpone that meeting to an unspecified date to be decided by the board at a later stage; provided that the board may not so postpone the date of any such meeting beyond that date (if any) by which that meeting is required by the Companies Act or this MOI to be held.

27.9 If a shareholders meeting is postponed or adjourned, whether in terms of clause 27.2 or otherwise, the company must, by announcement on SENS, give notice of the postponement or adjournment and that notice must contain the time and date of, and the location for, the continuation or re-commencement of the meeting and any other information which the board may decide to include therein.

27.11.2 the company's attorney (or where the company's attorney is a firm, any partner or director thereof), or other person admitted by the chairperson of the shareholders meeting,

28.1.2 1 (one) or more shareholders, or proxies or authorised representatives for shareholders, may participate by electronic communication in all or part of any shareholders meeting that is being held in person, so long as the electronic communication employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other and without an intermediary, and to participate reasonably effectively in the meeting.

28.2 Any notice of any shareholders meeting at which it will be possible for shareholders to participate by way of electronic communication shall inform shareholders of the ability to so participate and shall provide any necessary information to enable shareholders or their proxies or authorised representatives to access the available medium or means of electronic communication, provided that such access shall be at the expense of the shareholder or proxy concerned.

28.3 If a provision has been made for a shareholders meeting to be conducted by electronic communication or for participation in a shareholders meeting by electronic communication and the medium or means of such electronic communication is available and functioning, then the shareholders meeting shall be entitled to proceed even if a shareholder, proxy or authorised representative is not able to gain access to the medium or means of electronic communication so employed.

28.4 A resolution passed at any shareholders meeting that employs electronic communication shall, notwithstanding that the shareholders are not present together in 1 (one) place at the time of the shareholders meeting, be deemed to have been passed at a shareholders meeting duly called and constituted on the day on which, and at the time at which, the shareholders meeting was so held.

29 CHAIRPERSON OF SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

29.1 The chairperson of the board or, failing him, the deputy chairperson of the board (or if more than 1 (one) of them is present and willing to act, the most senior of them) shall preside as the chairperson of each shareholders meeting; provided that, if no chairperson or deputy chairperson is present and willing to act, the shareholders present shall elect 1 (one) of the directors or, if no director is present and willing to act, a shareholder, to be the chairperson of that shareholders meeting.

29.2 The chairperson of a shareholders meeting shall, subject to the Companies Act and this MOI, determine the procedure to be followed at that meeting but shall not have a second or casting vote at any shareholders meeting.

30 SHAREHOLDERS RESOLUTIONS

30.1 At a shareholders meeting, a resolution put to the vote shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded (on or before the declaration of the result of a show of hands) by –

30.1.1 the chairperson of the shareholders meeting; or

30.1.2 not less than 5 (five) shareholders present at the shareholders meeting having the entitlement to exercise voting rights on that resolution; or

30.1.3 a shareholder or shareholders present at the shareholders meeting having the entitlement to exercise at least 10% of the total voting rights of all shareholders having the entitlement to exercise voting rights on that resolution.

30.2 At any shareholders meeting, any person who is present at the shareholders meeting, whether as a shareholder or as a proxy for, or authorised representative of, a shareholder, shall be entitled to exercise the following voting rights –

- 30.2.3 a shareholder other than those referred to in clauses 30.2.1 and 30.2.2 shall not be entitled to exercise voting rights, except as provided for in clause 30.3.
- 30.3 The registered holders of a class of shares, other than ordinary shares and any special class of shares created for the purposes of black economic empowerment, shall not be entitled to exercise voting rights on any resolution at shareholders meetings, save –
- 30.3.1 as permitted to do so from time to time in terms of the provisions of this MOI pursuant to clause 30.4;
- 30.3.2 insofar as the right to do so is conferred on them in terms of section 37(3) of the Companies Act; or
- 30.3.3 as otherwise permitted to do so from time to time in terms of a provision in this MOI which has been approved by the JSE.
- 30.4 The company may, in terms of the preferences, rights, limitations or other terms attaching to a class of preference shares in this MOI, grant registered holders of that class of preference shares the entitlement to exercise voting rights on resolutions at shareholders meetings, as follows –

- 30.4.1 during any special period contemplated in this clause 30.4.1 during which any dividend or other distribution or any part of any dividend or other distribution on such class of preference shares or any redemption payment thereon remains in arrears and unpaid. The special period contemplated in this clause 30.4.1 shall be the period commencing on a day specified in this MOI, not being more than 6 (six) months after the due date of the dividend or other distribution or redemption payment in question or, where no due date is specified, after the end of the financial year of the company in respect of which such dividend or other distribution accrued or such redemption payment became due;
- 30.4.2 in regard to any resolution proposed for the winding up of the company or the reduction of its share capital, stated capital, capital redemption reserve fund or any other reduction in capital;
- 30.4.3 as otherwise permitted from time to time in terms of a provision in this MOI which has been approved by the JSE.
- 30.5 In instances where the registered holders of a class of shares ("participating shares"), other than ordinary shares and any special class of shares created for the purposes of black economic empowerment, are entitled to exercise voting rights on any resolution at a shareholders meeting) -
- 30.5.1 the votes of the participating shares shall not carry any special rights or privileges; and
- 30.5.2 a registered holder of participating shares shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote for every participating share held (on a matter to be decided by a poll) or 1 (one) vote in total in respect of all its participating shares (on a matter to be decided by a show of hands), provided that the total votes attaching to the participating shares at a shareholders meeting shall not be more than 24.99% of the total votes (including the votes of the ordinary shareholders) exercisable at that meeting (with any cumulative fraction of a vote in respect of any participating shares held by a shareholder rounded down to the nearest whole number).

30.6 In order for -

30.6.1 an ordinary resolution to be approved, it must be supported by a majority of the voting rights exercised on the ordinary resolution, as contemplated in section 65(7);

30.6.2 a special resolution to be approved, it must be supported by at least 75% of the voting rights exercised on the special resolution, as provided in section 65(9); and

provided that this clause 30 shall not detract from the shareholders' ability to adopt resolutions by written vote as referred to in clause 31.

30.7 As at the adoption date, the JSE listings requirements state that a “special resolution may, for purposes of the Listings Requirements, be passed only with the support of at least 75 percent of the votes cast by all equity securities holders present in person, or represented by proxy, at the general meeting/annual general meeting convened to approve such resolution”;

30.8 If any shareholder abstains from voting in respect of any resolution, that shareholder will, for the purposes of determining the number of votes exercised in respect of that resolution, be deemed not to have exercised a vote in respect of that resolution.

30.9 Except for those matters which require the approval or authority of a special resolution in terms of section 65(11), any other section of the Companies Act or any provision of the regulations to the Companies Act, no other matters which the company may undertake requires the approval or authority a "special resolution" (as defined in the Companies Act) of the shareholders.

31 WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS BY SHAREHOLDERS

31.1 A resolution relating to the following matters that could be voted on at a shareholders meeting may instead be adopted by written vote of the shareholders, as contemplated in section 60 of the Companies Act, if it is supported by persons entitled to exercise sufficient voting rights for it to have been adopted as an ordinary or special resolution, as the case may be, at a properly constituted shareholders meeting:

31.2 Unless the contrary is stated in the resolution, any such resolution shall be deemed to have been adopted on the date on which the company received the written vote of the shareholder or the proxy or authorised representative of the shareholder whose vote resulted in the resolution being supported by sufficient votes for its adoption.

PART E - DIRECTORS' POWERS AND PROCEEDINGS

32 AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

32.1 The business and affairs of the company shall be managed by or under the direction of the board, which shall have the authority to exercise all of the powers and perform all of the functions of the company, except to the extent that the Companies Act or this MOI provides otherwise.

32.2 The board may delegate to any 1 (one) or more persons all such powers, and delegate to any 1 (one) or more persons the doing of all such acts, including the right to sub-delegate, as the board determines in its discretion.

33 APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

33.3 The provisions of section 68(2) of the Companies Act shall apply to the election of directors, provided that any shareholder will have the right to nominate directors and provided further that a director may not be elected by written vote of the shareholders, as contemplated in section 60 of the Companies Act.

33.4 The board may appoint a person who satisfies the requirements for election as a director to fill any vacancy and serve as a director of the company (or to the extent permitted in law, serve as an additional director) on a temporary basis until the vacancy or additional position has been filled by election in terms of clause 33.2, and during that period any person so appointed has all of the powers, functions and duties, and is subject to all of the liabilities, of any other director of the company. The authority of the board in this regard shall not be limited or restricted by this MOI.

33.5 The directors shall retire from office in accordance with the following provisions of this clause 33.5 –

33.5.2 the directors to retire in terms of clause 33.5.1 shall exclude executive directors and shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, provided that if more than 1 (one) of them were elected directors on the same day, those to retire shall be determined by lot unless those directors agree otherwise between themselves;

33.5.3 if, after the retirement of directors in terms of clause 33.5.1, there would remain in office any director (excluding any executive director) who would have held office for 3 (three) years since his last election, he shall also retire, in addition to the directors retiring in terms of clause 33.5.1, at such annual general meeting;

33.5.4 any director appointed as such by the directors after the conclusion of the company's preceding annual general meeting shall, in addition to the directors retiring in terms of clause 33.5.1 and clause 33.5.3, retire from office at the conclusion of the annual general meeting held immediately after his appointment;

- 33.5.6 the annual general meeting at which a director retires may elect another person to fill the vacated office, and if it is not so filled, the retiring director shall, if he has offered himself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected unless the annual general meeting expressly resolves not to fill such vacated office or not to re-elect such retiring director and provided that the company shall not be entitled to fill the vacancy in accordance with clause 31;
- 33.5.7 no person other than a retiring director shall be eligible for election as a director at any annual general meeting unless the directors recommend otherwise, or unless during the period of 30 (thirty) days following the end of the financial year of the company which immediately precedes such annual general meeting a shareholder who will be entitled to attend and exercise voting rights at such annual general meeting shall have lodged at the registered office of the company written notice proposing such person as a director, together with the consent of that person to be elected as a director;

- 33.6 The board shall provide the shareholders with a recommendation in the notice of the annual general meeting at which the re-election of a retiring director is proposed, as to the re-election of that retiring director, taking into account that director's past performance and contribution. Sufficient time shall be allowed between the date of such notice and the date of the annual general meeting at which the re-election of the director is to be proposed to allow nominations to reach the company's registered office from any part of the Republic.

33.7 The company may not permit a person to serve as director if that person is ineligible or disqualified in terms of the Companies Act.

33.8 Life directorships and directorships for an indefinite period are not permissible.

33.9 In addition to the grounds of ineligibility and disqualification of directors as contained in section 69 of the Companies Act, a director shall cease to be eligible to continue to act as a director if he absents himself from 3 (three) consecutive meetings of the board without the leave of the board, and the board resolves that his office shall be vacated; provided that the foregoing provisions of this clause 33.9 shall not apply to a director who is represented by an alternate director who does not so absent himself.

33.10 This MOI does not impose any minimum shareholding or other qualifications to be met by the directors of the company in addition to the ineligibility and disqualification provisions of the Companies Act and clause 33.9.

33.11 Section 70 of the Companies Act shall apply to any vacancy on the board which may arise from time to time.

33.12 If the minimum requirement in clause 33.1 ceases to be met, the remaining directors must as soon as possible and in any event not later than 3 (three) months from the date that that minimum requirement ceases to be met, meet the minimum requirement by, inter alia, acting in terms of clause 33.4 or holding a shareholders meeting for the purpose of filling the vacancies or appointing additional directors, and the failure by the company to meet those minimum requirements during the said 3 (three) month period does not limit or negate the authority of the board of directors or invalidate anything done by the board of directors.

- 33.13 If the board continues not to meet the minimum requirement in clause 33.1 after the expiry of the 3 (three) month period contemplated in clause 33.12, it may, for as long after the expiry of that 3 (three) month period as it fails to meet those requirements, act only for the purpose of meeting the minimum requirements or in the preservation and necessary formal administration of the company, but not for any other purpose.
- 33.14 A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (except that of auditor), any subsidiary of the company, any company controlled by the company, any company promoted by the company, or any company in which the company may be interested, whether as shareholder or otherwise, in conjunction with the office of director, and in this event, his appointment for such period and on such terms as to remuneration (in addition to the remuneration to which he may be entitled as a director) and otherwise must be determined or agreed to by a disinterested quorum of the directors.
- 33.15 Except insofar as otherwise decided by the board, a director of the company who holds an office or place of profit contemplated in clause 33.14 shall not be required to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him by reason of such office or place of profit.

34 ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

- 34.1 Each director may, by notice to the company at any time -
- 34.1.1 nominate any 1 (one) or more than 1 (one) person in the alternative (including any of his co-directors) to be his alternate director;
 - 34.1.2 terminate any such appointment.
- 34.2 The appointment of an alternate director shall terminate when the director to whom he is an alternate director -

34.2.1 ceases to be a director; or

34.2.2 terminates the alternate director's appointment.

34.3 An alternate director shall, subject to this MOI -

34.3.1 act as a director, and generally exercise all the rights of the director to whom he is an alternate director, but only during the absence or incapacity of that director; and

34.3.2 in all respects be subject to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the appointment, rights and duties and the holding of office of the director to whom he is an alternate director, but shall not, unless the board determines otherwise, have any claim of any nature whatsoever against the company for any remuneration of any nature whatsoever.

35 BOARD COMMITTEES

35.1 Without limiting clause 33.2, the board may -

35.1.1 appoint any number of committees of directors; and

35.1.2 delegate to any committee any of the authority of the board (including the authority to sub-delegate);

35.1.3 include any person who is not a director of the company in such committees, and, accordingly, the authority of the board in this regard is not limited or restricted by this MOI.

35.2 The authority and power of any committees established by the board, as contemplated in section 72(2) of the Companies Act, is not limited or restricted by this MOI, but may be restricted by the board when establishing a committee or by subsequent resolution.

36 CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD

36.1 The board shall be entitled, from time to time, to appoint a director to act as the chairperson or deputy chairperson of the board and to determine the period for which he holds office. The board shall be entitled, from time to time, to remove the chairperson or deputy chairperson of the board from his post, so long as, in the case of the removal of the chairperson, the board appoints a replacement chairperson.

36.2 The chairperson of the board or, failing him, the deputy chairperson of the board (or if more than 1 (one) of them is present and willing to act, the most senior of them) shall preside as the chairperson of each meeting of the board; provided that, if no chairperson or deputy chairperson is present and willing to act, the directors present shall elect 1 (one) of the directors present to be the chairperson of that meeting of the board.

36.3 The chairperson shall, subject to the Companies Act and this MOI and any decision of the board, determine the procedure to be followed at all meetings of the board.

36.4 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 73(5)(e) of the Companies Act, the chairperson shall not have a second or casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

37 DIRECTORS MEETINGS

37.1 The board may -

37.1.1 meet, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit; provided that any director shall be entitled to convene or direct the person so authorised by the board to convene a meeting of the board;

- 37.1.2 determine the form and time of the notice that shall be given of its meetings and the means of giving that notice; provided that -
 - 37.1.2.1 no meeting may be convened without notice to all of the directors (but subject to clause 37.2); and
 - 37.1.2.2 any such prior determination may be varied, depending on the circumstances and reasons for the board meeting in question, and the authority of the board in this regard is not limited or restricted by this MOI.

- 37.2 If all of the directors of the company -
 - 37.2.1 acknowledge actual receipt of the notice of a meeting and agree that the meeting should proceed;
 - 37.2.2 are present at the meeting; or
 - 37.2.3 waive notice of the meeting, the meeting may proceed even if the company failed to give the required notice of that meeting, or there was a defect in the giving of the notice.

- 37.3 The board -
 - 37.3.1 may provide for a meeting of the board to be conducted in whole or in part by electronic communication; and

- 37.3.2 must always make provision for any director to participate by electronic communication in every board meeting that is held in person at any place other than the registered office of the company,
- and any electronic communication facility so employed must ordinarily enable all persons participating in that meeting to at least speak and hear each other at approximately the same time, and to participate reasonably effectively in the meeting, with or without an intermediary. The authority of the board in this regard is not limited or restricted by this MOI.
- 37.4 As set out in section 73(5)(b) of the Companies Act, the quorum for meetings of the board shall be a majority in number of the directors then in office; provided that unless the board decides otherwise -
- 37.4.1 if a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of any meeting of the board, that meeting shall automatically be postponed without motion or vote to the same day in the following week (or if that day is not a business day, the next business day after that day), at the same time and place. The re-commenced meeting may only deal with the matters that were on the agenda of the meeting that was postponed;
- 37.4.2 if at any such re-commenced meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of that meeting, then, notwithstanding the provisions of section 73(5)(b) of the Companies Act, the directors present shall be deemed to constitute a quorum and shall be sufficient to vote on any resolution which is tabled at that meeting.
- 37.5 If a meeting of the board is postponed or adjourned, whether in terms of clause 37.4 or otherwise, the company must, within 48 (forty-eight) hours thereafter, send notice of the postponement or adjournment to all directors who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting (excluding those of the directors who have agreed not to receive such notice of postponement or adjournment or agreed that the meeting may proceed without them) and that notice must contain the time and date of, and the location for, the re-commencement or continuation of the meeting and the business to be dealt with thereat. If written notice is not so given, the re-commenced or resumed meeting may not be re-commenced or resumed and the business that would have been dealt with thereat can be dealt with at a new meeting of which fresh notice has been given in accordance with this MOI.

37.6 At any meeting of the board, -

37.6.1 an alternate director shall not be entitled to attend, speak or vote unless the director to whom he is an alternate director is absent from that meeting;

37.6.2 each director has 1 (one) vote on every matter to be decided by the board; and

37.6.3 a resolution of the board shall be passed by a majority of the votes cast in the manner set out in clause 37.6.2 at a quorate meeting of the board and there is no casting vote. Accordingly, in the case of a tied vote on a resolution, that resolution will not have been adopted. This clause 37 shall not detract from the board's ability to adopt resolutions as set out in clause 38.

37.7 The company shall keep minutes of the meetings of the board, and any of its committees, and include in those minutes -

37.7.1 any declaration given by notice or made by a director, as required by section 75 of the Companies Act; and 37.7.2 every resolution adopted by the board.

- 37.8 Resolutions adopted by the board -
- 37.8.1 must be dated and sequentially numbered; and
- 37.8.2 are effective as of the date of the resolution, unless the resolution states otherwise.
- 37.9 Any minutes of a meeting, or a resolution, signed by the chairperson of the meeting, or by the chairperson of the next meeting of the board, is evidence of the proceedings of that meeting, or adoption of that resolution, as the case may be.

38 WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS BY DIRECTORS

- 38.1 A decision that could be voted on at a meeting of the board may instead be adopted by a written resolution that has been submitted to all of the directors and signed by at least a majority of the directors (or their alternates).
- 38.2 Any such resolution, inserted in the minute book, shall be as valid and effective as if it had been adopted by a duly convened and constituted meeting of directors.
- 38.3 Unless the contrary is stated in the resolution, any such resolution shall be deemed to have been passed on the date on which it was signed by or on behalf of the director (or alternate director) who signed it last.
- 38.4 The resolution may consist of 1 (one) or more counterpart documents, each signed by 1 (one) or more directors (or their alternates).
- 38.5 An alternate director shall only be entitled to sign such a written resolution if the director to whom he is an alternate director is, at the time of the alternate director's signature, absent from the Republic, or is incapacitated.

39 EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

39.1 Without limiting clause 33.14, the board may appoint, from time to time, 1 (one) or more of the directors as executive directors, who shall be employees of the company, on such terms and conditions of employment as to remuneration and otherwise as may be determined from time to time by a disinterested quorum of the board, and may from time to time remove or dismiss such persons from office as director and appoint another or others in his or their place or places.

39.2 Any director appointed in terms of clause 39.1 –

39.2.1 shall not (subject to the provisions of the contract under which he is appointed) whilst he continues to hold that position or office, be subject to retirement by rotation; and

39.2.2 shall not, during the currency of such appointment, be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of directors; and 39.2.3 shall be subject to the same provisions as to the removal as the other directors of the company.

40 PAYMENTS TO DIRECTORS

40.1 The company may pay remuneration to its directors for their services as directors and, without detracting from the foregoing, may pay any additional remuneration or allowances referred to in clause 40.3, and the authority of the board in this regard is not restricted or limited by this MOI; provided that such remuneration must be approved by a special resolution passed by the shareholders within the 2 (two) previous years. For the avoidance of doubt, it is recorded that this clause 40 does not apply to remuneration paid to executive directors for their services as employees of the company which is governed by clause 39.1.

40.2 Each director shall be paid all travelling, subsistence and other expenses properly and necessarily incurred by him in the execution of his duties as a director; provided that such expenses shall first have been authorised or ratified by an executive director.

shall be unlimited (subject to compliance with section 43 to the extent applicable) and shall be exercised by the directors.

42 INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE FOR DIRECTORS

42.1 For the purposes of this clause 42, a director includes -

42.1.1 a former director and an alternate director;

42.1.2 a prescribed officer; and 42.1.3 a person who is a member of a committee of the board, irrespective of whether or not the person is also a member of the board.

42.2 The board may, on behalf of the company, as contemplated in sections 78(4), 78(5) and 78(7) of the Companies Act, -

42.2.1 advance expenses to a director to defend litigation in any proceedings arising out of the director's service to the company; and

42.2.2 directly or indirectly indemnify a director for expenses contemplated in clause 42.2.1, irrespective of whether or not it has advanced those expenses, if the proceedings -

42.2.2.1 are abandoned or exculpate that director; or

42.2.2.2 arise in respect of any liability for which the company may indemnify the director, in terms of clause 42.2.3;

42.2.3 indemnify a director against any liability arising from the conduct of that director, other than a liability set out in section 78(6) of the Companies Act;

 - 42.2.4.2.1.2 for which the company is permitted to indemnify a director in accordance with clause 42.2.2; or
 - 42.2.4.2.2 any liability for which the company is permitted to indemnify a director in accordance with clause 42.2.3 or clause 42.3, and the authority of the board in this regard is not limited or restricted by this MOI.

42.3 The company shall and is hereby obliged to indemnify each director against (and pay to each director, on demand by that director, the amount of) any loss, liability, damage, cost (including all legal costs reasonably incurred by the director in dealing with or defending any claim) or expense ("loss") which that director may suffer as a result of any act or omission of that director in his capacity as a director; provided that -

- 42.3.1 this indemnity shall not extend to any loss -
 - 42.3.1.1 against which the company is not permitted to indemnify a director by section 78(6) of the Companies Act; or

42.3.1.2 any loss arising from any gross negligence or recklessness on the part of that director, or

42.3.1.3 any loss of or damage to reputation;

42.3.1.4 in the event and to the extent that the director has recovered or is entitled and able to recover the amount of that loss in terms of any insurance policy (whether taken out or paid for by the company or otherwise);

and directors shall not be entitled to recover the losses referred to in this clause 42.3.1 from the company. All losses other than those referred to in this 42.3.1 are referred to herein as "indemnified losses";

42.3.2 each director's right to be indemnified by the company in terms of this indemnity shall exist automatically upon his becoming a director and shall endure even after he ceases to be a director until he can no longer suffer or incur any indemnified loss;

42.3.3 then –

42.3.3.1 if any claim is made against a director in respect of any indemnified loss, the director shall not admit any liability in respect thereof and the director shall notify the company of any such claim within a reasonable time after the director becomes aware of such claim, in order to enable the company to contest such claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this clause 42.3.3, the company's liability in terms of this indemnity shall not be affected by any failure of the director to comply with this clause 42.3.3, save in the event and to the extent that the company proves that such failure has resulted in the indemnified loss being greater than it would have been had the director complied with this clause 42.3.3;

- 42.3.3.2 the company shall, at its own expense and with the assistance of its own legal advisers, be entitled to contest any such claim in the name of the director until finally determined by the highest court to which appeal may be made (or which may review any decision or judgment made or given in relation thereto) or to settle any such claim and shall be entitled to control the proceedings in regard thereto; provided that -

- 42.3.3.2.2 the company shall regularly, and in any event on demand by the director, inform the director fully of the status of the contested claim and furnish the director with all documents and information relating thereto which may reasonably be requested by the director;
- 42.3.3.2.3 the company shall consult with the director prior to taking any major steps in relation to or settling such contested claim and, in particular, before making or agreeing to any announcement or other publicity in relation to such claim;
- 42.3.4 to the extent that any loss consists of or arises from a claim or potential claim that the company might otherwise have had against the director, then the effect of this indemnity shall be to prevent the company from making such claim against the director, who shall be immune to such claim, and such claim shall therefore be deemed not to arise;
- 42.3.5 if this clause 42 is amended at any time, no such amendment shall detract from the rights of the directors in terms of this clause 42 in respect of any period prior to the date on which the resolution effecting such amendment is adopted by the shareholders;

42.3.6 all provisions of this clause 42.3 are, notwithstanding the manner in which they have been grouped together or linked grammatically, severable from each other. Any provision of this clause 42.3 which is or becomes unenforceable, whether due to voidness, invalidity, illegality, unlawfulness or for any other reason whatever, shall, only to the extent that it is so unenforceable, be treated as pro non scripto and the remaining provisions of this clause 42.3 shall remain of full force and effect;

42.3.7 this indemnity shall not detract from any separate indemnity that the company may sign in favour of the director.
